SOUTHWEST CONTEST ROUGH & READY LAY OUT

Design by: Susan (4 Projects)

The new Southwest cartridge was just what I needed for this 12 x 12 lay out featuring a photo of my husband in January 1958 playing with his Fort Apache Cowboys & Indians play set and his 1956-1957 school picture. If you already have "Old West," and are thinking you don't need "Southwest," you're wrong! These two cartridges go together like a hand and a glove!

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Cricut Expression® Machine with Plantin SchoolBook and Accent Essentials®

Cricut® Old West Cartridge

Cricut® Everyday Cartridge, Southwest

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

- Card Stock
- Adhesive
- Photo Brad
- Rust Colored Ink
- Printer for sentiment

STEP 1

Images from the Southwest Cartridge used in this project were: Teepees cut at 3" and 5"; totem pole cut at 4.5"; Sunset with cactus cut at 4.5". On the teepees and totem pole, I cut the first layer in brown card stock and a second layer in maroon. On the maroon layer, I used the "hide contour" feature (so easy to use in Cricut Craftroom!) and hid all of the cut outs so that the maroon would show through the brown layer. I cut the shadow images in yellow card stock. All images were inked with rust colored ink before assembling.

STEP 2

Images from the Old West cartridge were: covered wagon cut at 2.5", wood fence frame around sentiment cut at 2.5" and Rough & Ready cut at 1". Each image was inked with rust colored ink before assembling.
